Happy Sunday Seniors!

We are still plugging away at our senior activities and I'm hoping that once things get back to normal the attendance will increase.

We walked again on Tuesday. My one faithful walker (Chet) had a meeting and couldn't be there but Flo and I did our nine laps and had a very nice time. We need to be congratulated because we did it in the rain....are we all that or what?

We enjoyed the movie last Wednesday and are planning another movie date if the theater can get the movie “The Sound Of Music”. I know everyone has seen that movie but it is so good and entertaining why not see it again. I'll let you know when it is available.

Lastly we are having a luncheon and Kathy already has the menu planned, but that's a surprise. We don't have a date yet but when we do... you will be the first to know!

See you Tuesday at 9:30 at the Detwiler Field. If you are able, try to join us there. Please contact me by email or phone: rscalia316@comcast.net or text my phone (814) 386-9530.

Have a blessed week!!! In Christian Love, Ruthie

Missionary stress in a COVID-19 world Praying for their needs

- Missionaries are used to being in public, building relationships. Many are frustrated because of lockdown. Ask God to reveal to them other ways to connect.
- Missionaries may not have access to good healthcare and may even be restricted right now from travel to get good healthcare. Ask God to protect them from COVID-19.
- Many missionaries are separated from family during this pandemic. Missionary kids in colleges may be displaced and living with friends or acquaintances. Elderly parents may be living in other locations. Other families may be experiencing everyone home at once with its own challenges to carrying on the work. Ask God to remind and assure our missionaries, their children, and extended families to trust Him in this and guard each missionary's heart and mind through Christ Jesus.
- Missionaries are adjusting to a new way of doing ministry or still trying to figure things out. Pray they rest in God. If there are feelings of guilt or uncertainty, pray God turn those into times of seeking, resting in Him. Pray they see truths from God's word and what He wants the focus in their life and ministry to be right now.
- Some missionaries may feel trapped and alone in their countries or in the USA prevented from returning to their work countries. Pray they seek God for guidance and peace making plans for their future work.
