September Prayer Focus – Europe

Portugal - Mike Davis, an Alliance international worker, will be the chaplain for the Lumberjacks, an American football team. Pray for opportunities to speak eternal truths into the lives of young men. Ruth Davis will teach religion and morality classes at a local public middle school. Pray for direction as to what curriculum she should use and that the school will be impacted by the Holy Spirit through Ruth's teaching.

Spain - Rejoice for a smooth start to a new school year for LIFE International School, which has seen five years of ministry. Having a facility large enough and a full-strength staff has made a world of difference. Intercede for new teachers as they adjust to life in Spain and to this educational institution. The critical need now is to have new enrollments to reach 60 students.

Field leaders Marilyn and Tim Westergren rejoice with the Alliance church in Tres Cantos for six people who were baptized on September 12. These baptisms were postponed from a year ago! “The gratification of witnessing the public declaration of faith and loyalty to Christ of a couple whom we have walked with for eight years was overwhelming.”

For nine years, Canadian worker Kim Peters has been asking God for another Christian professional artist with whom to partner in her mission to reach artists in Spain with the gospel. Last week, a godly couple from Lyon, France, visited Madrid to explore God's call to minister in Spain; the wife is an artist. Pray for the couple to discern His perfect will for their lives.

Claudia Irvin had her last summer craft club with 12 children from her building. She reviewed all the character values she had taught them during the summer as well as her testimony of finding forgiveness in Christ. Pray that the biblical truths taught will have lasting spiritual impact, especially as the Irvin's retire next summer.

At the Alliance church in Granada, Dutch international workers Maarten and Nelleke Slot have resumed the youth group after the summer break. Pray that attendees will resist peer pressure and follow Jesus despite their friends' opposition. The church also has a small group ministry for mutual edification in the Word and accountability; pray for lasting impact.
